

Strategies
For the New Economy
Nationwide
Workshops

University of Phoenix presents an evening of tools, tips and information, featuring exclusive speakers and hands-on workshops.

The world has changed. It's a new economy, with new jobs, new challenges and new opportunities. Come and learn about strategies you can apply for succeeding in today's job market.

Gather.

Across the country, people will be meeting to learn about resume building, interviewing skills opportunities in their job market and the latest trends in their industries.

Learn.

Keynote speakers will discuss the ins and outs of the new economy, from its overall financial implications to the kinds of jobs it has created and how to prepare yourself.

Succeed.

It's an evening of support and tools that will help you adapt to the ever-changing job market and work for a better tomorrow.

Workshop Details

August 18, 2010: 6-8pm

Location:

Yuma Learning Center
899 E Plaza Circle
Yuma, AZ 85365

6:00 TO 6:30 pm

Meet, greet and get started. Light snacks and drinks will be served.

6:30 to 7:00 pm

Keynotes Session: NBC's Erin Burnett, "The Financial Side of the New Economy" and Career Builders Rosemary Haefner, "Jobs in the New Economy" will join us via exclusive videos.

7:00 to 8:00 pm

The Workshops: "Resume and Interviewing Skills" and "Where jobs are."

To register for the "Strategies for the New Economy" Workshops visit phoenix.edu/openhouse

Presented by:

In Partnership with:

